Memo

As under Govt Proceedings dated 19 March 1894 cto $\frac{15602-11}{L-J322-92}$. the establishment and maintenance cost of all III Class travellers bungalos is chargeable to the Destrict Fund the Dy Coms of Kadur submitted a statement shewing the exisiting ~~bungalos~~ bungalos with salaries of servants maintained in each. In reply to an enquiry† as to the necessity for the retention of 2 servants in each of the following bungalos. while there was only one in each of the remaining bungalos, the Dy Coms submitted a statement shewing the number of halts made and fees collected in each of them and recommended that the services of one servant may be dispensed with in Chanee and the retention of those now exisiting in others as they were very necessary for the convenience of travellers

This is a question which should be disposed by the D. P. W. All that we have to tell the D. P. W. is that we as representing the D. should would be glad to get rid of the receipts and responsibilities of the 3rd class Bungalows in question, if they would be good enough to take them over from us & maintain them as 2nd class Bungalows. We however we need not trouble ourselves about the details of furniture establishment in the new Bungalows as in case the D. P. W. accept the proposal they would have have to maintain them as 2nd class Bungalows.

In the Chikmagalur Dy Conservancy it is necessary to retain only one servant called Caretaker in the 3 Class Bungalows.

In the Kadur Dy the case is different. Of the 5 places mentioned in 2 Kottige Chaur is at the head of the Boondi Ghaut & is very much visited by travellers, with scattered farm houses. It is on the main line from Mangalore to Kadur Railway Station.

Kottigehar Kaccepatna Kotwal Dandi there may I think be allowed to remain in addition to watcher.

No 1 Lakkipatna is on the same line. It is not much visited by travellers & the Watcher seems unnecessary.

So also at No 3 Koppa.

The Dy Comr himself recommends the removal of Dandi at Kotwal Harihar Pur mentioned by him is not a 3 Class Bungalow, subject to C.F. Dept.
